The final action of the National Republican Committee at Chicago seems to be effectively putting a quietus on Roosevelt's Presidential excursion up the Ohio river, and aspirations via the Republican nomination route, as the Taft steam roller is working very smoothly in spite of the frantic howls of Teddy's rough rider and circus following contingent. Throughout the whole contest the Roosevelt followers have been howling fraud, even in cases where their representatives on the committee voted against their claims, Dick Knott in the Evening Post being one of the loudest in face of the fact that Judge Burnam, the Kentucky representative on the committee and a strong Roosevelt adherent, voted in several instances to seat the Taft delegates. Post's bitter attitude against President Taft makes one smile when it is remembered that the Post carried a beautiful little four-line stanza at the head of its column for two years eulogizing Taft and not "let foolish hands mix or mar," meaning Taft should be left to guide Prevailed Tuesday Night at Meeting of Division 1, A. O. H.

Enthusiasm marked the meeting of Division 1, A. O. H., Tuesday night, when there was a notable increase in attendance, which has been steadily growing under the adminis-tration of President Martin Cusick and the present officers. The divis-ion accepted an invitation to the lawn fete and summer festival for Sts. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital and voted to attend. Patrick Stone and Edward Cradick were reported unable to follow their occupaand benefits were approved for all on the sick list. Daniel Mc-Carthy delivered an address, in which he pointed to the pride Catholic Irishmen should feel in the Ancient Order and the duty resting upon members to make the coming annual picnic a success. William M. annual picnic a success. William M. Higgins spoke for the Catholic Federation, in which the Hibernians have always been interested. Division I will do its part and will have its entire membership in the parade. In answer to repeated calls President Cusick made a timely talk upon the characteristics of the Irish people and the part they are playing for the advancement of every worthy public movement.

MACKIN COUNCIL

Will Send Six Delegates to Owensboro Conven-

Mackin Council held a fairly well attended meeting Monday night, which was enlivened by spirited talks and the election of six delegates and alternates to the Grand Council of the Kentucky jurisdic tion, which meets this year at Owensboro. The delegates chosen are Robert T. Burke, Rev. Father Martin Wiedekamp, Dr. J. A. Casper L. Sherley Cuniff, Al Link and Clyde Graven, the alternates being Joseph Higgins, Val Kast, Thomas D. Clines, George J. Lautz, Thomas Yount and George Simonis. mittees were present from Trinity and Unity Councils to formulate plans for the part the Y. M. I. would take in the Catholic Federation par-ade and decide upon the subject for their float. Rev. Father Fagan was introduced and delivered a short address that was heartily applauded. Upon all sides was heard favorable comment for the lawn tennis court, which has already developed some fast players. Unofficial reports point to the realization of over $800 from the recent operas of the Choral Club. The council made a liberal donation to the summer festival for Sts. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital and accepted the invitation to at-

Sentinel—Henry McDermott. at the Woman's Club by Patrick O'Sullivan, assisted by Mrs. Carrie Rothschild Sapinsky and Douglas Webb. Mr. O'Sullivan has won distinction in Europe and this country, and his recital is exciting interest. As an exponent of the Celtic school of music Mr. O'Sullivan is recognized as one of genius and authority, and his composit'ons have been received with great enthusiasm both in this country and abroad. The revival of Gaelic art, literary and musical, has made tremendous strides in the past few years, and to those to whom the music makes intimate appeal, as well as to the cultured mus cian, this concert should be of particular interest. Tickets have been placed on sale at Smith & Nixon's.

LOSS TO CITY.

The city of Louisville, and especially the Dominican parish, mourns the death of Joseph H. Wagner, who for the past thirty-six years was engaged in the sheet iron and metal business at 1147 South Seventh street. Five weeks ago the deceased suffered injuries in a runaway, and though not dangerous they caused pneumonia, which proved fatal. Joseph Wagner was a native of Indiana, but came here when a young man, and his integrity and uprightness of character and geniality of disposition earned him the respect and esteem of all with whom he was associated in business or socially. He is survived by three sons, E. H., T. W. and J. C. Wagner; two daughters, Elnora and Sister Josepha, of the Sacred Heart 'Academy; three sisters, Mrs. Mary Theiman and Sister Bonaventura, of Ferdinand, Ind., and Sister Baptista, of Birmingham, and a brother, the Rev. Morris Wagner, of Mariahill, Ind. The funeral took place from St. Louis Bertrand's on Saturday morning, the church being thronged by sorrowing friends and relatives. associated in business or socially. He

CATHOLIC LEAGUE SCHEDULE.

Much interest is being manifested in the race for the pennant in the Catholic Baseball League, as is evidenced by the increased attendevidenced by the increased attendance at the games every Sunday. Clean sport has been the slogan of the league since its opening, and it is being freely predicted that the league will prove to be a nucleus for the forming of a permanent Catholic athletic organization on the principles of the Y. M. C. A. The following is the schedule for tomorrow: St. William vs. Holy Trinity,
